

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Chief Warrant Officer Three Fred Loofbourow's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize these patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Chief Warrant Officer Three Loofbourow has devoted over 25 years of his life to the service of this state and country as a pilot and leader in aviation, including service in Iraq, as well as numerous flights supporting the various elements of our military in a time of peace; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

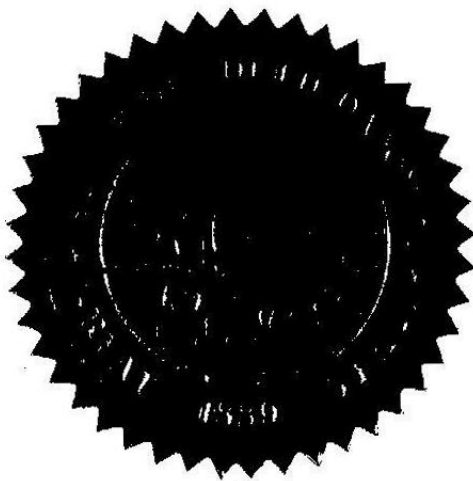

Whereas, Chief Warrant Officer Three Loofbourow continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Chief Warrant Officer Three Fred Loofbourow for over 25 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 1, 2012, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States of America.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard
